- The Senate on 5 FEB passed S.1, a Middle East policy bill, by a vote of 77-23. The bill authorized the appropriation of funds to Israel, reauthorized the United States-Jordan Defense Cooperation Act of 2015, included provisions "to halt the wholesale slaughter of the Syrian people" and includes McConnell Amdt. 65 expressing the sense of the Senate that "the United States faces continuing threats from terrorist groups operating in Syria and Afghanistan and that the precipitous withdrawal of United States forces from either country could put at risk hard-won gains and United States national security." The McConnell amendment was added to the bill on 4 FEB after passing the Senate with a 70-27 vote.
- On 7 FEB a bipartisan group of five senators introduced the Saudi Arabia Accountability and Yemen Act, S.3652. The bill would mandate sanctions on anyone responsible for Jamal Khashoggi's killing and prohibit the sale of certain weapons to Saudi Arabia and the refueling of Saudi-led coalition aircraft in Yemen. The bill is pending consideration by the Senate Foreign Relations Committee.
- On 8 FEB, 15 new members of the armed services and appropriations committees attended a breakfast held in the Pentagon. Members were appreciative of the opportunity to engage with senior leaders, expressed a desire to be helpful and have a productive relationship with the Department moving forward.
- On 11 FEB, the House Rules Committee marks up H.J. Res. 37, which would direct the removal of U.S. troops from Yemen. The House Foreign Affairs Committee approved it in a 25-17 party-line vote on 6 FEB.

Kevin:

This is not exactly the tone for which I had hoped, and fear it will make the case the Secretaries have to make more difficult. Good luck. Let me know if you have any questions ahead of the briefing.

I think SecState is making some calls to some individual members this morning.

Chief, SMA,

Please see the note below from Norm Route. Norm was the NIM-Iran for a number of years, and he is an expert also on Saudi Arabia and the broader Middle East. Although he offers to talk with SS, I think he really meant the SD. The SD has met with him a lot over the years (before Norm retired about a year ago). Let me know what you think. I'm sure the schedule is packed, but Norm usually has very helpful insights too.

Good morning, (b)(6)

It has been a while since we chatted and I hope you are doing well. I am writing to ask if the SecState would be interested in chatting with me on Saudi Arabia. I have spent the last week in the Kingdom where I had long conversations with C/GIP, the FM, two other ministers, as well as a couple of dozen mid-level policy, security, and military officials. Conversations focused on Khashoggi crisis, Yemen, and the region.

As you may recall, I have been involved in Saudi issues for more than three decades, served there for a number of years, and maintain a number of senior contacts as friends.

Naturally, I understand if the Secretary is too busy or feels he already has a sufficient understanding of the situation. I won't lie and say that I am partially compelled by the desire to say hello to him.

Regards,

Norm

Hi (b)(6) - once again, work has intervened. We'll need to stick around here today as we work on the Khashoggi situation.

I'm actually in Saudi next week, but we can shoot for the week after. I know we'll need to speak in person, but if you are free for a quick phone call today, can at least touch base.
